

GROSSMONT UNION HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT

Resolution No. 2008-18

Community Service Resolution

ON MOTION OF Jim Kelly, seconded by Dick Hoy, the following resolution is adopted:

WHEREAS, the Grossmont Union High School District's primary goal is student learning and success. Stakeholder support is essential to achieving this goal and;

WHEREAS, students, families, and community are vital to the goal that every student can and will succeed. Community needs and concerns matter and will be addressed in a timely manner, and to the best of our ability and;

WHEREAS, as we value transparent, open and responsive communication with the community, and we provide our families access to information by offering oral and written translations as needed whenever possible and;

WHEREAS, we believe in being responsible, providing meaningful feedback to our students, staff and families, reinforcing the high quality of services we provide, acknowledging a sense of urgency about the delivery of those services, establishing positive community relations, living our "mission" while keeping our promises, fulfilling our fiduciary responsibilities, and above all valuing the community trust and;

WHEREAS, all employees are responsible for using best hiring practices and procedures, developing a highly professional collaborative learning environment, maintaining strong partnerships with our customers and suppliers, and;

WHEREAS, it is the Grossmont Union High School District's expectation that our work environment will at all times be based on mutual courtesy and respect, as well as professional appearance and conduct, and;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Governing Board of the Grossmont Union High School District declares its endorsement of these commitments, in an effort to strengthen its relationships and meet or exceed the expectations set forth in this community service resolution.
